Review of the implementation of the recommendations and decisions adopted by the General Assembly at its tenth special session: Advisory Board on Disarmament Matters; United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research

Proposed programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003

Request for a subvention to the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research resulting from the recommendations of the Board of Trustees of the Institute on the work programme of the Institute for 2003

Note by the Secretary-General

Summary

In accordance with the provisions of the statute of the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research (UNIDIR) (see General Assembly resolution 39/148 H, annex, art. VIII, para. 3), the recommendation of the Board of Trustees of UNIDIR for a subvention of $227,600 for the year 2003, from the regular budget of the United Nations, is hereby transmitted to the General Assembly for approval. A related provision to finance this subvention for the biennium 2002-2003 was approved by the General Assembly under section 4, Disarmament, of the programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003.

02-61479 (E) 041002

1. At its thirty-ninth session, the Advisory Board on Disarmament Matters, in its capacity as the Board of Trustees of the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research (UNIDIR), approved, for submission to the General Assembly, the Institute's programme of work and estimated resource requirements for 2003 (see A/57/335). The present report, reflecting the updated estimates that have since been provided by the Institute to the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, is submitted to the Assembly in the context of its consideration of a subvention of $227,600 for 2003 from the regular budget of the United Nations.

2. In the report of the Secretary-General on the work of the Advisory Board (ibid.), it is stated that the Board expressed the hope that the level of support to UNIDIR would be maintained and reiterated its strong support for an increase in the real value of the subvention to UNIDIR.

3. The programme budget of the United Nations for the biennium 2002-2003, under section 4, Disarmament (A/56/6/Add.2, chap. II, sect. 4), contains a provision of $447,100 representing the United Nations subvention to UNIDIR for 2002-2003. Notwithstanding the inclusion of the necessary provision in the programme budget, a formal request for a subvention of $227,600 for the year 2003 is submitted to the General Assembly, in keeping with established procedure.

4. Under section IV of General Assembly resolution 44/201 B of 21 December 1989, entitled "Subvention from the regular budget to the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research", the Secretary-General is required to report annually to the Assembly on the situation of the Institute. In this context, it is reported that the financial situation of the Institute is as follows:

(a) Funds available at the beginning of 2002 amounted to $1,011,400. This figure includes an amount of $124,500, required as operating cash reserve for 2002;

(b) Total income for 2002 is estimated at $1,625,700, from the following sources: voluntary contributions and public donations ($1,345,200); interest income ($60,000); the subvention from the United Nations regular budget ($219,500); and miscellaneous income ($1,000). It is also estimated that of the total voluntary contributions and public donations, approximately 58.6 per cent will be used for special projects and 41.4 per cent for other purposes, including administrative costs. The details of the revised estimated contributions from voluntary sources for 2002 and 2003 are provided in annexes I and II, respectively;

(c) Total revised estimated expenditure for 2002 is $1,364,200, including a provision of $54,500 for programme support costs. Requirements for 2003 are estimated at $1,156,200, inclusive of $44,200 for programme support costs. The breakdown of 2002 revised estimated expenditures and of estimated resource requirements for 2003 is provided in annex III;

(d) Available funds at the beginning of 2003 are estimated at $1,272,900, including an amount of $171,700 that would be required as operating cash reserve.

5. Should the General Assembly decide to approve the recommendation of the Board of Trustees of UNIDIR, no additional provision would be required under section 4 of the programme budget for the biennium 2002-2003.

Daasebre Oti Boateng (Ghana)

Daasebre Dr. Oti Boateng, known in private life as Dr. Emmanuel Oti Boateng, was enstooled as Omanhene (Traditional King) of the New Juaben State of Ghana on October 26, 1992.

He holds the degrees of:

- BSc. (Honours) in Economics from the University of Ghana;
- MSc. in Statistics from London School of Economics and Political Science and
- Ph.D in Statistics from the University of Liverpool, UK.

He is a Deputy Director General of the International Biographical Institute in Cambridge, England as well as Advisor to the United Nations on Post Adjustment Questions.

Daasebre's varied work experience began with the Duetsche Bank in Frankfurt, Germany, in 1963.

In 1966 he worked with the Boston Edison Company, in Boston Massachussettes, USA.

He also worked with the University of Ghana for 14 years (1969 - 1982), first as a Research Fellow and later as a Senior Research Fellow and Director of Studies at the Institute of Statistical, Social and Economic Research.

He was appointed to the high office of Government Statistician and Head of the Statistical Service of Ghana in 1982 and held that position with distinction for a record period of Seventeen and a half ($17^1/_2$) years until his constitutional retirement from the Public Service in May 2000.

He rebuilt the Ghana Statistical Service to the enviable position as one of the best in Africa. He successfully conducted the Population Census of Ghana in 1984 during a period of severe economic difficulties.

Daasebre has had extensive consulting experience with various International Agencies, such as:

- World Bank,
- World Health Organisation (WHO),
- United Nations Development Programme (UNDP),
- Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA),
- United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA)
- Food and Agriculture Organisation (FAO)
- United States Agency for International Development (USAID)
- International Labour Office (ILO)
- United Kingdom Department for International development (UK-DFID).

Daasebre is very active in Public and International Affairs and belongs to many Professional Societies. He has been a member of the United Nations Statistical Commission from 1983 to 1998 and was elected Chairman of the Commission from 1987 to 1989. By his election, Ghana became the first African Country to be elected to the Chair of the United Nations Statistical Commission. He is a Member and a Former Vice-President of the International Statistical Institute, a worldwide professional body of eminent statisticians established in 1885.

Daasebre is also a Member of the International Association of Official Statisticians, a Member of the African Statistical Association and a Fellow of the Ghana Statistical Association.

In January 1993, Daasebre was elected Chairman of the 15th International Conference of Labour Statisticians in Geneva, Switzerland. By this achievement, he became the first African to assume the Chairmanship of the International Conference of Labour Statisticians.

In April 1993, Daasebre was appointed a Member of the United Nations Advisory Committee on Post Adjustment Questions (ACPAQ). He was re-appointed to this position in January 1997 for a second term of four (4) years. He was again appointed to this position for a third term of four (4) years in January 2001.

In this capacity, Daasebre is among a small group of specialists who give technical advice to the United Nations and other International Organisations on matters relating to post adjustments and restoration of purchasing power parity among International Civil Servants working in different locations throughout the world.

He was one of the Population Experts invited by the United Nations to a Meeting in New York in September 1996, to prepare a revised Principles and Recommendations on the year 2000 round of World Population and Housing Censuses Programme.

Daasebre has over 70 technical publications to his credit in the areas of Statistics, Economics, Population and Policy Issues. He has also supervised and coordinated the production of over 350 statistical publications.

Daasebre was a Member of the Council of State of Ghana, during the first term of the 4th Republic (1993 – 1997).

He is a Member of the Eastern Regional House of Chiefs and the national House of Chiefs.

He is also a Member of the Standing Committee of the National House of Chiefs and Chairman of Finance and Administration Committee of the House.

In recognition of his achievements, the very first edition of the "International Leaders in Achievement" published by the International Biographical Center in Cambridge, England in 1988 was dedicated to Daasebre, among other distinguished personalities for his "outstanding contribution as a Statistician".

Daasebre is also the recipient of the special commemorative 24-karat Gold Medal, the year 2000 Millennium Medal of Honour, awarded by the American Biographical Institute for his "collective contributions to society".

Under his leadership, remarkable achievements have been made in the socio-economic and cultural landscape of New Juaben. He has institutionalised the Akwantukese festival of the Chiefs and people of New Juaben to foster development in unity for the welfare of the citizenry. He has also carried out a major reconstruction of the New Juaben Palace, which has gained worldwide recognition and is now a beacon of tour packages to the region.

Anita Szlazak (Canada)

A bilingual senior executive with domestic and international experience in regulatory and administrative matters and the ability to deal effectively with highly technical and complex areas involving many players and competing interests.

HIGHLIGHTS OF PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

LEADERSHIP/MANAGEMENT/ANALYSIS

- Heard cases and made decisions, as a Member of a quasi-judicial tribunal within Canada's trade remedies system, with respect to: injury caused by dumped and subsidized imports, customs and excise tax appeals, and complaints regarding government procurement. Advised the Minister of Finance on requests from Canadian producers for tariff relief on imported textile inputs used in further manufacturing.

- Reported to Parliament, as one of three Commissioners, on the administration of the Public Service Employment Act with respect to appointments, appeals, staffing audit and investigation of complaints. Developed and enforced the equity and fairness of federal government employment policies and practices.

- Established and managed a team responsible for the Government of Canada's role in the 1988 Olympic Winter Games in Calgary. Developed and negotiated the umbrella agreement covering the participation of all federal government departments in the Calgary Games and providing the framework for $200 million in direct funding, including the construction of the facilities at Canada Olympic Park and the provision of essential and discretionary services. Co-ordinated the activities of over 25 federal departments, agencies and Crown corporations that were to become involved in the Games.

- Directed the activities of five branches in the Program Management Directorate of the Canadian Parks Service - approximately 55 employees and a $5 million budget. Responsible for realty services for 35 national parks and reserves and over 100 national historic sites and canals across Canada, socio-economic research, marketing, strategic policy and planning. Initiated the rationalization and realignment of Directorate responsibilities. Established a new system for prioritizing and justifying the Directorate's capital budget.

- Directed the activities of four divisions in the International Telecommunications Branch of the Department of Communications - 27 employees and a $1.5 million budget. Mastered a complex field in terms of subject matter and interested parties. Restructured Branch initiatives to deal more effectively with Canada's international telecommunications interests.

- Led an External Affairs review to develop key criteria for Canada's continued participation in the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization following the decisions of the U.S.A and Britain to withdraw from the Organization.

- Led a comprehensive review of Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation's International Relations responsibilities. Developed a positioning strategy in keeping with the Corporation's overall mandate and the Government of Canada's current priorities. Recommended an organizational structure and a planning framework that were implemented to carry out the new role.

- Determined the policy, legal, political and bureaucratic constraints involved in updating National Health and Welfare's electronic data processing systems for Income Security Programs and integrating them with related federal payments systems in other departments.

NEGOTIATION/REPRESENTATION

- Represented the Government of Canada on the Administrative Council (governing body) of the International Telecommunication Union, Geneva. Led Canadian delegations in a number of other international meetings and negotiations.

- Represented the Government of Canada on the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee of the Calgary Olympic Organizing Committee.

- Developed and negotiated nine comprehensive legal agreements with the major partners in the Calgary Olympic Winter Games, ensuring that federal interests and long-term investments were protected.

- Represented the Government of Canada and the Institute of Public Administration of Canada on the Executive Committee of the International Institute of Administrative Sciences, Brussels. Elected Vice President of the Executive Committee.

- Represented External Affairs in bilateral air negotiations with ten countries, including the U.S.A., U.S.S.R., People's Republic of China, Italy and Japan. The Canada-U.S. Air Agreement was the largest and most complex bilateral agreement in the history of civil aviation.
